Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

Note:

The phrase “Sha'alu shalom Yirushalayim” actually reveals Yeshua!

The word sha'alu actually means “ask” (as in ask a sheilah, a question). Shalom is a Name of Yeshua, since He indeed is Sar Shalom (the Prince of Peace). The word Jerusalem means “teaching of peace” (the “Jeru” at the beginning comes from the same root as Torah, which means teaching), so the phrase could be construed as “ask about the Prince of Peace and His Teaching.”

At any rate, we know that Yeshua is indeed the King of Jerusalem (Matt 5:35) who will soon return to reign over all the earth!
