

Devakut

[Front Side]

cut and laminate

Cleaving to God

“Cleaving” to God is called devakut (דְּבָקוּת), a word that derives from davak (דָּבַק), a verb meaning to “cling,” to “stick” like glue, to be attached in devotion...

דְּבָקָה נַפְשִׁי אַחֲרֶיךָ
 בִּי תִמְכַּח יְמִינֶךָ

da·ve·kah · naf·shi · a·cha·re·kha
bi · tam·khah · ye·mi·ne·kha

5"

3"

[Back Side]

cut and laminate

Cleaving to God

Yeshua demonstrated God's own devakut for us by “cleaving” to the cross as full payment for our sin. Because of His loyal love for us, we can now experience “at-one-ment” and true communion with God (see John 17:21-23).

דְּבָקָה נַפְשִׁי אַחֲרֶיךָ

My soul clings to you

your right hand upholds me.

בִּי תִמְכַּח יְמִינֶךָ

Psalm 63:8

“My soul cleaves to You;
Your right hand
upholds me...”

(Psalm 63:8)

ἐκολλήθη ἡ ψυχὴ μου ὀπίσω
σου ἐμοῦ ἀντελάβετο ἡ δεξιὰ σου (LXX)

5"

3"